

Mariafrancesca Carli

Mariafrancesca Carli is a Managing Director at BDT & Company, based in New York. BDT & Company is a merchant bank that combines more than $9 billion in affiliated investment funds with advisory services to address the long-term strategic and financial objectives of family- and founder-led businesses. Prior to BDT & Company, Ms. Carli spent 8 years at J.P. Morgan in London and New York.

She joined J.P. Morgan in July 2007 in London with responsibility to set up the coverage of Infrastructure Funds in Europe. After 4 years in London, she moved to New York where she worked in the Financial Sponsor Group covering a number of large Private Equities. Before moving to BDT & Company, she had started the Family Office Group, to provide Investment Banking Services to families and family offices in the US.

Prior to J.P. Morgan, Ms. Carli spent over 15 years in the Investment Banking Division of Goldman Sachs in Europe and in the US, with roles in M&A, the Financial Institution Group, the Executive Office and the Infrastructure and Sovereign sector.

Ms. Carli, over her 25 years in Investment Banking in Europe and in the US, has executed a variety of M&A transactions and capital raisings for clients across sectors, including banks, insurance, asset managers, exchanges, corporates, infrastructure funds, private equities and private families.

Ms Carli received an M.B.A. from the MIT Sloan School of Management and a Degree in Economics from Università' Commerciale Luigi Bocconi.

Ms. Carli serves on the MIT Sloan North America Executive Board, the Bocconi Alumni Board of New York and the Italian Business & Investment Initiative Advisory Board.

Ms. Carli resides in NYC with her husband and their two children.

Mariafrancesca Carli
IB&I Board of Advisors,
New York